

Hook It - Purse Hook Heaven

There are only a handful, if that, of restaurants that cater to a ladies handbag! Those precious hooks at the bar or counter are worth gold when you don't want to rest your new ivory Chloé on the bacteria-ridden floor. Why take the chance on the restaurant and when you can just bring your own hook. It's true! The Purse Hook is on the market, finally! If I pay for a designer bag, which is often the equivalent of a down payment on a car, I would not be embarrassed to whip out the Purse Hook. It holds up to 35 pounds, which is reasonable for the amount of items in my bag and is embellished with a decorative piece in a variety of designs. Function and fashion can work!
