

GLAMOUR

I'm Suze Yalof Schwartz, Glamour's executive fashion editor at large—a total dream job. I get to work with the best designers, photographers, and hair and makeup artists, transforming real women we find on the street into Glamour models. Plus, I get the opportunity to appear on morning and afternoon shows to bring the pages of Glamour to life on the air.

Bag snob, I mean slob

Sorry mom!

OK I will admit it - I'm both. I love a great bag - Tod's being my favorite, but I probably don't deserve to be carrying one as I am the world's biggest bag slob. I probably have 3 Metrocards for the subway and I can't find any of them in the depths of my bag. And sadly, my under-eye cover up has destroyed the interior lining of the bag.

Did you know a Peruvian superstition says that if you put your bag on the ground you'll lose money in the future? I do both all the time - who knew they were connected? The Purse Hook and the Joey Junior Purse Mate are both great solutions for a bag slob!
